Application name- Slope Search

Application Description-

Our application, Slope Search, will be a multipurpose ski information website. It will have both a registration and login page so that users can have their own accounts. Once logged in, the home page will offer multiple options to the user for information about ski resorts and ski runs.

The ski resort and ski runs will be backed by a database that the user can interact with. They will be able to see pre-existing information such as the resort website, difficulty, length, images, and user reviews and they will also be able to add reviews of their own. Users will have their own profile where they can bookmark resorts and runs too.
